FOREWORD

This bibliography was compiled by Clifford R. Harrington as a part of his work in making an inventory of current rural development-community resource development resources and activities in the 12 Northeastern states for the Northeast Regional Center for Rural Development.

Reports on Cooperative Extension Service community development/rural development programs in each state provided to the Center during 1973 made it possible for Mr. Harrington to derive a beginning list of extension publications and of other land-grant publications named by the program leaders as used in support of extension community development/rural development activities. This beginning list was then returned to the program leaders for additions and corrections. The lists thus provided have been edited to produce the accompanying selected bibliography. The items listed are current or recent publications for the most part.

The Center will welcome reaction as to the usefulness of this bibliography to extension staff members and others with responsibilities for community development/rural development work. Suggestions as to Northeast land-grant extension publications which should be included in any future edition will also be appreciated. A list of research publications is being prepared by the Center.

The Cooperative Extension staff members whose cooperation made possible the compilation of this selected bibliography were:

Arun C. Basu, West Virginia University
John W. Bergstrom, Pennsylvania State University
James A. Edgerton, University of Vermont
Paul R. Fiske, University of New Hampshire
Arley M. Hovland, Rutgers University
Jerry Klement, University of Maryland
Francis E. Montville, University of Maine
James H. Noyes, University of Massachusetts
James C. Preston, Cornell University
Edmond E. Seay, University of Rhode Island
Ronald L. Stump, West Virginia University
William W. Stone, University of Vermont
Gerald F. Vaughn, University of Delaware
George E. Whitham, University of Connecticut

Leslie C. Hyde assisted in the preparation of the final manuscript. Typing was done by Dorothy J. Messenger.

Copies of the items listed in this bibliography must be obtained from the original publication source or from a library. They are not available from the Center.
